

ESIS

Our staff of certified industrial hygienists investigate and report on technical issues of claims when performing facility closing evaluations.

The objective of the evaluation is to document occupational health exposures and controls, gathering data on present and historical exposures.