ACE UK STRENGTHENS ENVIRONMENTAL RISK TEAM

London, 8th March 2010 – ACE UK has strengthened its environmental risk team with the appointment of Victoria Keeble as Environmental Risk Underwriter.

In her new role Victoria will report to Wayne Harrington, UK & Ireland Manager – Environmental Risk and work within the London environmental team to underwrite business in this fast growing sector.

Victoria brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the team having underwritten environmental business at AIG and Certa for seven years. Before moving into insurance she worked in environmental consultancy with Laing and WS Atkins. Victoria also holds an MSc from Imperial College in Environmental Technology and a BSc in Geology from the University of Bristol.

ACE offers a comprehensive range of insurance products and services to help clients to manage their environmental risks. These solutions offer a broad spectrum of coverage arising from pollution and other environmental damage, including the clean-up of own property and surrounding land and water; third-party liability including nuisance; damage to biodiversity and business interruption.

Commenting on the Victoria's appointment, Wayne Harrington said: “The challenge of managing their environmental risks effectively is becoming a major issue for our clients and we’re investing significantly in both the expertise and products to help them. Victoria’s background in environmental consultancy and more recently in the insurance sector, gives her exactly the insight and experience our clients need. We’re delighted to welcome her aboard.”
